

Finally some sound advice that actually makes sense. This is a guide for all parents who want to work collaboratively with their child's teacher. This book informs us on relating to teachers through support, and establishing a team approach to finding the right solutions for the individual child. It also shows us how to construct and use the building blocks of effective partnerships with teachers, reminding us of what we are really striving for, successful programmes.

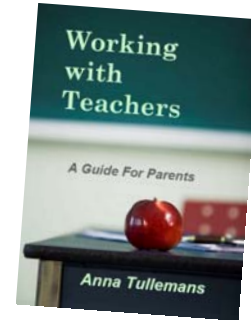

Some of the topics include:

- Communication
- Reflective Listening
- Negotiating with Teachers
- Being Assertive not Aggressive
- Strategies for Working with Teachers
- Establish a team approach
- Creating a positive relationship

The cost of this 50 page book is $25.00.
